of Women'sNEW PUMPS

It is easy to use the words "Exclusive" or "Individual" in advertising Women's shoes, but very difficult to find these elusive qualities in the shoes themselves.

The smart novelties in Women's pumps now on display at the Cammeyer Store testify to the creative ability of our designers, who have originated models that really justify the use of these sadly abused terms.

George Hanigan, Cut in Restaurant Brawl, Will Not Tell Who Attacked Him Nor Identify Prisoner.

Found on the sidewalk in front of a restaurant at No. 462 Eighth Avenue, early this morning, and now in the French Hospital, likely to die from a stab wound, George Hanigan, twenty-two years old, of No. 237 East Thirty-seventh Street, refuses to give the police any information.

According to witnesses, a fight started in the rear room of the restaurant. A thrown late hit James Curtis of No. 311 East Forty-third Street, on the head and knocked him unconscious, and the fight was then transferred to the sidewalk. Curtis, who is held at the West Thirty-seventh Street Police Station as a material witness, was taken to the

STRANGE AVIATOR FLIES OVER BABYLON BY NIGHT

Mysterious Flights, Aided by Big Searchlight, Puzzle Residents on Long Island.

BABYLON, L. I., May 4.—West Babylon residents have had two night aeroplane visitors to their village recently. The plane appeared about 10 o'clock last Saturday and Sunday nights and carried a huge searchlight. The whirling of an engine could be heard. Just what the machine was doing in this vicinity is hard to tell. At West Babylon is the Chalmers Vauxhall Remover plant, but no explosives are manufactured there. The plane, it is said, also visited this section several weeks ago after nightfall. Just what its manoeuvring means has not been interpreted, but citizens are watching for its return.
